November 2010

From Our President...

Hi Ladies-

Here I am back from the Missouri State Quilters' Guild Retreat. Sally, Lynnore, Muriel and I spent a wonderful weekend with this fun group. We took classes, had wonderful meals, a great show and tell, lots of prizes and enjoyed the company of over 100 women that share our passion. Think about going next year. It will be at Lake of the Ozarks for one more year and then will move to Jefferson City. The spring quilt show at Powell Gardens outside of Kansas City is shaping up to be beautiful. The quilts displayed will all be of a nature/outdoor theme. This is a beautiful venue at the Botanical Gardens with the quilt shaped display. Think about going and maybe we could get a group together.

I understand the pillowcase making day was a huge success. Loved the pictures. I am sorry I missed it but will be at the next one for sure.

Our quilt show was wonderful. Don't have any of the figures yet, but will report as soon as we do. I want to thank everyone that participated one more time. Without all of us working together, we could never have pulled it off. We are having our wrap up meeting the 21st so hope to announce the 2012 theme.

I have had a very busy October so far, but hope to get back to my sewing room very soon. Lots to accomplish before 2012! Lots of UFO's to get finished.

Congratulations to your new officers for 2011. It is a great group and are already working hard to bring you a fun and informative year.

Keep quilting,
Madeline

November Program: Origami Quilts/Napkin folding with Jan Cannon

The holidays are just around the corner, so our program will begin with some fun ways to fold your napkins and put a little “flair” on your holiday table. Our guest speaker will then take folding to a new dimension and introduce us to fabric origami. You won’t want to miss this meeting, especially if you are interested in another Iron Quilters’ Challenge which will use fabric origami as the basis. Our Fabric Origami Challenge will begin our 2011 year which will be full of wonderful programs and a new block of the month which will be extended into a 2012 Challenge! (Dinner will be in December this year)

Community Project Quilts

Here is a list of the latest quilts we delivered in October.

- 9 baby quilts to Birthright
- 8 baby quilts to Lutheran Family Services
- 7 kid’s quilts to the Safehouse
- 15 to Family Counseling Services.

We still have a number of quilts in the almost done stage and hope to finish them yet this year. Thanks so much for everyone’s help, without it we couldn’t accomplish as much.

From Nancy East

Fat Quarter: Autumn

Bring an autumn-themed fat quarter to the meeting and you will be entered to win a basket of Fat Quarters.

UPDATE: Community Projects is cancelled until spring.

Opportunity Quilt

It’s time to turn in your sold Opportunity ticket stubs, the money, and/or the unsold tickets. The drawing will be during our next meeting on November 8th. Prior to the meeting you can drop off tickets, money, and stubs at The Golden Needle. Be sure your name is attached, as I have a log, and will be getting in touch if the tickets are not accounted for. Also, if you sell $50, (or ten books), you get extra chances to win the quilt yourself. This is a money maker for the guild and your support is appreciated. From Merle Deneke

Madeline issued a challenge from the St. Louis Quilt guild to be a 2011 Guild Friend to the Paducah Museum for $100. Motion was made by Betty Phillips and seconded by Martha Haertling. Vote was taken and approved.

Program:

Irene Mueller-Miller from St. Louis was our gifted speaker this evening with a wonderful presentation and display of both hand and machine quilted items. Her vintage hankie quilt and many others reflected her creative ability to make machine quilting look like hand quilting. Having taught classes at Quilt and Stitch in St. Louis, she entertained us with stories and examples of practical ways to make our projects complete. She gave us valuable information regarding the marking of our quilts, washing them in Orvis soap, laying them out to square corners and using creative machine stitches on our sewing machines to produce professional results. It was a delightful program and her quilts were awe-inspiring.

Show and Tell: (6 presenters)

Velda Keister, Judy Douglas, Vicki Howard, Darla Snider, Mary K Reed, and Carol Gallaher

Respectfully submitted,
Carol Gallaher, Secretary.

Paper Piecing Inspirations by Janet Wickell

Ever wanted to try paper piecing but did not want to get involved in a big project? The easiest blocks are those made of rectangles only, such as a log cabin. http://quilting.about.com/od/foundationpiecing/ss/log_cabin_block.htm. She has several patterns for small foundation pieced projects, such as the Windmill Quilt at left below that makes a 21 inch square wall hanging. The pattern is at http://quilting.about.com/od/miniaturequilts/ss/whirlwind_quilt.htm

For someone wanting a bigger challenge, try the pattern on the right at <http://quilting.about.com/od/miniaturequilts/ss/oddfelows.htm>. This quilt is 20 inches on each side.

Quilt Guild ConKerrs Cancer One Pillowcase at a Time

On October 16, 2010, The Golden Needle/Sewing Basket allowed us to use their class space to make pillowcases for Children's Hospital as part of the ConKerr Cancer national pillowcase effort. Darla Snider bravely followed the directions for the hot-dog method of making a pillowcase on her own, and then taught the rest of us how. Thanks, Darla, for your instruction. Thanks to the ladies who made or brought pillowcases, and a huge thank you to the Golden Needle/Sewing Basket for being our host. Our current pillowcase count is 26, and pillowcases keep popping through my door slot. <http://www.conkerrcancer.org/pillowdirections.html>
