Because September was the picnic, there is no president letter and no minutes.

October Program...

Marlene Horning-Jackson will present her Trunk Show. Marlene comes to us from the Quilted Oak in Camdenton, Missouri

FAT QUARTERS / Block of the Month

Bring a white or cream fat quarter to be entered to win all the fat quarters. Bring your Block of the Month from the August meeting's pattern to trade.

Opportunity Quilt

Less than 6 weeks from the time you read this newsletter, we will be having our November meeting - the meeting that the drawing for the 2011 beautiful opportunity quilt will be held.

We certainly thank each of our members who have taken tickets and helped sell them to friends, family, and co-workers. If you have not taken any, we ask that you please consider doing so. This project can bring in $2000 if we all work together by taking only $20 worth of tickets to sell. We thoroughly enjoyed creating this lovely quilt and hope that one of our guild sisters can put it onto her personal bed.

If you want any tickets, please feel free to call Merle Deneke.

From Darla Snider:

Thanks to the following 8 quilters who loaned a total of 30 quilts for the Open House at the Glenn House on Sept. 24-25: Mary Belle Dohogne, Martha Short, Cindy Spaeth, Mary Green, Linda Gast, Mary K. Reed, Ravan Simms, and Darla Snider. These quilters will be admitted free to the Glenn House on the above dates.

Thank You Note for Forgotten Soldier donations:

Ladies, thank you for your amazing donations! You have truly blessed my mission & our soldiers! You are an amazing group of people. — Brittany Ivie
